

This Flight Attendant believes cell phones in-flight could seriously jeopardize the safety of crew and passengers, the communication with ATC towers, & the security of our aircraft through any number of scenarios. In today's world it is hard enough to get people to listen through their laptops, DVD's, and game-boys. They need to hear us in case of fire or medical or rapid decompression. The phones would endanger everyone on board. AN AIRCRAFT IS NOT A BUS!!